

The 2017 Hudson Garden Club Grant Recipients

Hudson City Schools - $3,000 toward planting trees to increase diversity of tree types and to replace lost ash trees at the Hudson High School campus.

Hale Farm and Village - $2,500 to restore historic gardens at the Jonathan Goldsmith House at Hale Farm.

Conservancy for Cuyahoga Valley National Park - $2,400 to provide scholarships for students from local lower-income families to attend All the Rivers Run, an immersive outdoor learning program for 4th – 8th graders.

Cleveland Botanical Garden - $1,500 to support Green Corp. Urban Gardening Program within Cleveland distressed neighborhoods.

David Hudson Chapter DAR - $750 toward restoration and landscaping of Hudson's World War 1 memorial for its Centennial - 1918 to 2018

Hudson Montessori School - $290 for new tools, materials and bees to continue to work in the existing hives of the school and keep them productive and useful.

Carolyn Bouquot - $250 to maintain island at the intersection of Terex and Barlow Road.